Dorothy Watson has spent a lifetime passionately involved with music and music education. In 1950 she graduated from Calvin College in Grand Rapids, Michigan, with a Bachelor of Education and a major in music. In 1955, she received her Masters in Music Education from Indiana University, concentrating on organ, choral conducting, and music education.

Dorothy worked for the Vancouver School Board until a decade ago. She served as a music teacher, head teacher, vice-principal, principal, and music consultant.

Today Dorothy is a member of the American Guild of Organists and the North Shore Theatre Organ Society and is resident organist for First Church of Christ, Scientist in West Vancouver. She continues to give recitals to raise proceeds for charitable causes.

A Victoria B.C. native, Catherine Campolin has performed with numerous groups throughout Canada including Toronto's Opera In Concert, Edmonton's NUOVA program and the Victoria Conservatory of Music. Here at home she has sung with Vancouver Opera, Burnaby Lyric Opera, and with members of the Vancouver Symphony Orchestra.

Catherine is a regular member of Vancouver Voices. She can be heard Sunday mornings at the First Church of Christ Scientist in West Vancouver where she is the regular soloist. Some of her more recent engagements include First Witch in Purcell's Dido and Aeneas and as a soloist in Bach's B-minor Mass with Vancouver Voices. She was also in Vancouver Opera's production of Fidelio.
